Time Reported: 02:00:46

On April 17, 2020 about 0200hrs dispatch advised me they had received a call for a theft of services, which was responding to our headquarters to make a report. Due to our lobby being closed for Covid 19 restrictions, I called the complainant, identified as Alan Cameron.

Alan advised he had picked up a fare from 153 Chestnut St at about 1212hrs, escorted this male and female to the A Plus Minimart (210 S Cayuga St), waited for them to finish their business, and then returned them to 149 Chestnut St about fifteen minutes later. Alan stated the male had brought a 300 pack of beer back from the store with him. Alan stated once the two had been taken back to the Chestnut Hill apartments, the female then stated she needed to get money, but never returned. Alan later learned from an unknown person, the male subject in his vehicle had stolen beer. For this reason and the fact Alan was not paid for the $20.00 taxi fare, he called the police. The larceny of beer, of which Alan was referring to, was recorded under case 120-05089 by Officer N. Lopez.

The male was described as a black male about 6ft tall in his thirties or forties. The female was described as described as a thin build black female with either died blond or silver hair or wearing a wig of the same color. This female was reportedly the source of other problems with Ithaca Taxi, the business in which Alan drives for. She was known to them to reside at 310 Floral Ave apartment 506. Given the description, I believed this female to be Chante Nelson. The male was believed to be Donta Braxton, as he was the suspect in Officer Lopez case.

Alan was advised a photo array could be put together and shown to him on April 17, 2020 at around 2323hrs if he and Ithaca Taxi wished to pursue charges for the theft of services. Alan advised he would speak with his dispatcher and get back to me.

I will follow up on this. Buck #144.
